To my son, Jean Samuel Holloway, M. D., and to his children,
J. Samuel Holloway, Jr., and Susan Jane Holloway, this volume is affectionately dedicated

TO THE HOLLOWAY FAMILY IN AMERICA

This book is presented to you not with the full satisfaction of the compiler but with the knowledge that a consistent and vigorous effort to obtain all the facts and data possible has been prosecuted over a period of more than five years, every effort has been made through a search of Court records, Wills, Church records and old Bibles to secure all information obtainable to trace the several branches of the family back to the earliest member of the name in this country.

Even such success as has been accomplished would have been impossible had it not been for the interest taken in the work by several members of the family along the different lines. To name them all would be to repeat many of the names in the record, however, special credit must be given to Geo. W. Stratton and his good wife of Flushing, Ohio, who not only made a trip through Virginia interviewing those of the family still living in that State but searched in the Church and County records for such data as they might contain. They have also been most energetic in completing family records and striving in making the connections in the many families whose histories have come within their knowledge. In fact to them is due more of the credit for what has been accomplished than to the compiler of this work, who was compelled to confine his endeavors entirely to correspondence. Much credit is also due to R. H. Holloway of Churdan, Iowa, to O. C. Holloway of Van Buren, Indiana, to Mrs. Elizabeth Satterthwait of Trenton, N. J., to W. P. Holloway of Salem, Ohio, to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Holloway of Landsdown, Pa., and to Mrs. Mary DuBoise Holloway of Wheeling, W. Va. That there will be some errors as to dates of births, marriages and deaths can be expected. Most of these will be due to the effort of members of the several families who have attempted to complete the history of their own family, sometimes from memory, and again from incomplete records in their possession. The endeavor has been made in every case to confirm the data as received and to check up on each individual case wherever possible.

The same lack of interest prevailed in many cases as obtained in direct solicitation, hence some errors are bound to be present. We will be glad to have notice of any such errors or indeed of any additions to the family records and should there be sufficient facts or corrections come to us to justify it an addenda will be issued which will conform with the present book and be furnished gratis to owners of the history.

It will be noticed that the book is divided into chapters, each chapter consisting of a family line. Each family line is numbered consecutively so that the line can be easily traced by following the numbers back to the founder of the family so far as we have been able to trace them.

In order that the various families may be able to if possible trace for themselves their own line where we have failed, we are incorporating a chapter containing the names of the family we have been unable to connect, and also several English Wills furnished us by Mrs. Mary DuBoise Holloway of Wheeling, W. Va., which she secured in an endeavor to trace the family back to the English ancestry. These wills are in Latin and will at least be interesting.

With this brief introductory we are placing the record in your hands with the knowledge that at least it will be preservative of some of the data we have found and with the hope that it will be the stimulus to some one to continue the work and finally to present a more complete and better work.

CHAPTER I.

THE EARLY HOLLOWAYS IN AMERICA

In the course of our research and study of the early history of the Holloway Family we have found that there are persons bearing the name scattered over much, if not all, of these United States.

They were among the very early immigrants, a tradition having been handed down that there were Holloways in the second landing at Jamestown, Va. The records show that Hugh Cox brought Peter Holloway to Charles City County, Va., in the year 1635, and that a Land patent was granted to John Holloway in 1639 for 1850 Acres lying on Hungars Creek in Accomac County, Virginia.

Baldwin, in his "Maryland Wills" records the Will of a John Holloway of Calvert County dated Nov. 2nd, 1697, which mentions wife Mathew, sons John and James and daughters Eliza, Riggell and Mary.

Volume 9 American Ancestry gives an account of William Holloway of Taunton, Mass., who married Elizabeth Holyday Nov. 17, 1702, and says he was the son of Malachi.

Savage, in his "Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England," makes mention of a John Holloway of Hartford, who came to New England in the ship "Elizabeth" from London 1635, age 21 years. He seems to have settled in New Haven and died there October 18, 1684, without issue.

A Court Record of York County, Virginia, dated June 1675 excuses James Holoway from paying taxes because "he is past labors." And the York and Charles City Parish record notes the death of James Holloway, Sr., July 19, 1677. The same parish record gives the date of birth of David Holloway son of James and ————— as May 2, 1664.

Samuel Holloway, who settled in Taunton, Mass., married March 26, 1666, Jane Brayman, by whom he had issue:—Hannah, Samuel, Nathaniel and John. It is thought this John was born about the year 1668.

We believe the branch which settled in New Jersey arrived during the first or second decade of the Eighteenth Century and they settled in and near Gloucester and Burlington Counties.

On Sept. 29, 1714, Tobias Holloway presented a certificate to Chester Monthly Meeting of Friends in Pennsylvania from Bristol Friends Meeting in England dated Feb. 5, 1714, and stating that "he is of sober and orderly conversation and also free and clear from all persons on account of marriage here which therefore we certify on his behalf and conclude your friends and Brethern," and signed by twelve men of the meeting. But the first mention we find of the residence of Tobias in America is at Newton, Gloucester County, New Jersey.

As Tobias came from Bristol, the Friends Records of the Northern Division of Bristol and Somersetshire were examined and while no mention is made of Tobias, other than the issuance of the above mentioned certificate to him, the following records of the Holloway Family were found, viz:—

James Holloway, son of Thomas and Gartery Holloway was born at Froom Aug. 10, 1680.

John Holloway, son of Thomas and Gartery Holloway was born at Froom Aug. 3, 1686.

Richard Holloway, son of John Holloway, was born at Froom Jan. 1, 1689.

Gartery Holloway, daughter of Thomas and Gartery Holloway was born at Froom May 17, 1696.

Sarah, daughter of Thomas and Gartery died 1695.

Hannah Holloway wife of Benjamin died Aug. 19, 1729.

John Holloway, of whose descendants this work deals principally, resided at Chesterfield, Burlington County, New Jersey, and he may or may not have been the above mentioned John. He was a member of the Society of Friends, a contemporary of Tobias and may have been a brother and it is our belief had a close connection with the Friends of Bristol.

The Robins Family of Crosswicks, N. J., came from New Haven, Conn., as is indicated by the will of the first settler, Daniel Robins, 1714, in which he made disposition of land that, "falls to me in New Haven in Connecticut Colony." His son Aaron mentions a granddaughter Margaret Holloway. The Buck Family, of whom we shall know more later, also came from New England.

So it is possible that John may have come from New England stock, but there were members of the Society of Friends settled in Nansemond County, Virginia, in the late sixteen hundreds as is evidenced by the record that Nansemond Meeting House was built in February 1702, and was twenty by twenty feet. Also the record shows that in 1680 Henry Holloway, son of Thomas of Elizabeth River and Elizabeth Cotching daughter of Thomas of Chuckatuck were married. William Holloway, a Friends Minister, died May 27, 1677.

John might have come up from Virginia, but we think not, for the Holloway records which we have from Bristol together with the fact that his wife, Mary Pharo, was of the Pharo Family which came from Somersetshire, of which Bristol is really a part, justifies us in our belief that he was of Bristol stock.

The usual tradition that "three brothers came to America" prevails in the Holloway Family as in nearly all such cases. If this be true they surely settled far apart, Virginia, New Jersey and Massachusetts. It is very likely that the New Jersey immigration was composed of "three brothers" and we are told that two stopped in New Jersey and one went over the river into Pennsylvania. If this be true, these two in New Jersey may have been Tobias and John.

Of the families of Tobias, Malachi, Levi and John of Morris Town we have very little, but think without doubt they were closely connected.

As the ancestors of many of the following families were active members of Hopewell and South Rivers Meeting, a brief history of the origin of those Meetings seems appropriate.

HOPEWELL MEETING, FREDERICK COUNTY, VA.

The following interesting account of the establishment of the Hopewell Meeting is found in "The Jolloffe Family of Virginia," 1652 to 1893.

"About the year 1731 Alexander Ross, with other friends, obtained from Gov. Gooch of Virginia, a patent for 70,000 acres of land in the valley of Virginia which he located north, east and west of the present town of Winchester. The minutes of East Nottingham meeting tell of Alexander Ross having a vendure July 16, 1732, which was no doubt for the sale of his effects preparatory to his moving to Virginia. In these records Alexander Ross asks for worship at Opecquon Mar. 18, 1734, and such a meeting was granted after due deliberation Nov. 5, 1734. 'Friends were requested to be unanimous in the choice of the place where such meetings were to be held and build their house.' The first record we have of Hopewell Meeting is dated July, 1736, Simeon Taylor, Clerk. Prior to this, meetings were held at Friends' private houses and marriages were preformed at East Nottingham, one hundred fifty miles away.

"Alexander Ross fixed his residence near what is now called Ross's Spring, one of the boldest, clear, cold limestone springs found in Virginia. The meeting house, built of logs on a hill near this spring, from which water was obtained, stood on land granted for that purpose. This house served the early Friends as a place of worship until 1757, when it was destroyed by fire. The present stone meeting house was then ordered built and was soon finished. Alexander Ross used great diligence in settling his land grant, large numbers of Friends from Pennsylvania and Maryland coming to him and many Scotch-Irish Presbyterians also, from New York and Lancaster Counties, Pa. These Friends mostly purchased their titles from the Indians, also, when they claimed the land. Alexander Ross died in 1748 and was buried at Hopewell; his wife died in 1749."

In the year 1788 the house built in 1757 was greatly enlarged to accommodate the Quarterly Meetings, then established, and again in 1910 the building was repaired, but we were informed not much changed in general appearance from without. It was our rich pleasure in the summer of 1925 to visit the historic Meeting House and its beautiful surroundings and we believe that could you stand beside the spring and drink of its bubbling crystal water, as the writer did, you would wonder who of your ancestors had quenched his thirst from the fountain, centuries old. "And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the land." "And he said unto me, I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of water of life freely."

The records show that our forefathers came over the Blue Ridge Mountains from Goose Creek and Fairfax in Loudon County and from Southland in Culpeper County, and we are thoughtful of their faithfulness in traveling these long distances to attend Quarterly Meeting, where perhaps many of them drank of this "water of life" also, which is so freely offered to all mankind that are ATHRIST.

"The tramp of many a heavy foot
That sought thy aisles is o'er,
And many a weary heart around
Is still forever more."—Annon.

THE SOUTH RIVER MEETING

Weeks in his "Southern Quakers and Slavery" says, "About the year 1725 the vanguard of the Quaker movement appeared at Monocacy, Maryland. Here, like a true wave of Teutonic migration, it rested for a time. It reached Hopewell, Va., in 1732, and the next twelve or fifteen years were spent in subduing northern Virginia. In 1743 an advance-guard had gotten as far as Carver's Creek, in Bladen County, N. C. The next twenty years are marked by swarms of Quakers that came pouring into the central sections of North Carolina, many of them falling by the wayside, however, in Campbell and Bedford counties, Va., where South River Monthly Meeting was organized in 1757. From about 1760 to the revolution the horde passed through North Carolina and Georgia."

Mildred Parker Church in "The Old Quaker Meeting House" tells us, "The little log meeting house where South River Meeting was first established was soon destroyed by fire, as was also a frame structure built on the site of the present stone building, and in 1791 it was planned to build a new meeting house of stone, 50x72 feet and 12 feet high. It was started in 1792 but the Quakers, like the churches of the present day, found it difficult to raise money, and it was not completed until 1798. Like all Quaker Meeting Houses it was singularly plain, with no interior decoration, and plain long benches with backs to them. One elevated seat was at the end for the ministers, for no other reason than that they might be better heard. The women occupied one-half of the benches and sat apart from the men. This Meeting House was not abandoned until only three members were left to hold a service in 1839."

The South River Monthly Meeting was laid down in 1858.

"The building fell into decay, the benches were stolen, the roof fell in and the scene became a picture of neglect. At last in 1904, after trying several other denominations, Dr. Terrell succeeded in interesting a Presbyterian clergyman and his congregation in the plan of building upon the ruin a Quaker Memorial Presbyterian Church" and as such it stands today.

She tells us that the Old Quaker Meeting House stood in the midst of one of the battles of the civil war and that after "General Hunter folded his tent and quietly stole away" the Confederates buried the dead near the building, some of them in the enclosure. "Friends believe it unlawful for Christians to engage in the profession of arms, or indeed to bear arms under any circumstances of hostility whatever. Now the old Meeting House stands as a monument of war as well as of peace, with soldiers and peace loving Quakers lying side by side."

So many of the Holloways having lived at South River during the late years of the eighteenth century we think perhaps the foregoing account will be of interest to their descendants and they may be interested also in the following poem written by Lucy Fleming on the Old Meeting House. Written about 1894.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The blue hills rise in stately strength,
Streams ripple soft below,
As on those long-gone Sabbath days,
One hundred years ago.

When in these crumbling, roofless walls,
Where birds flit to and fro,
The Quaker fathers worshiped God
One hundred years ago.

And word of truth, or praise, or prayer,
In measured tone, and slow,
Was spoken as the Spirit moved
One hundred years ago.

Here many a calm, saintly brow
Seemed lit by Heaven's glow,
And caught the promised peace of God
One hundred years ago.

Perhaps just here the sunshine fell
On golden heads below,
Where children lifted patient eyes
One hundred years ago.

Here youth and maidens primly sat
In silent, decorous row,
But, as to-day, love stole his glance
One hundred years ago.

In ancient graves, where trailing vines
And tender wild flowers grow,
Sleep those footsteps thither turned
One hundred years ago.

Long have these altar fires been cold
And only ruins show,
The temple holy to the Lord
One hundred years ago.

But true and simple faith abides,
Though centuries onward flow—
The fathers did not build in vain
Who reared this modest forest fane
One hundred years ago.

CHAPTER VIII

DESCENDANTS OF ISAAC HOLLOWAY, (29) AND HIS WIFE MARY HAINES.

He was the son of George Holloway, (24) and Ruth Wood.

Isaac Holloway, (29) son of George Holloway, (24). We have found no record of his birth but we are told that he married Mary Haines in 1758. We believe he died in 1809. An old family record gives his birth as Oct 25, 1735.

Children:—

- (45) Amos Holloway, born Sept 4, 1759; m. Elizabeth Shinn, 1st; Hepzibah Stanton, 2nd.

- (55) Phebe Holloway, born April 22, 1785.

Frederick County, Virginia, marriage licenses records one to Elijah Fawcett and Phebe Holloway Feb. 25, 1810.

6 Mo. 14, 1780, Isaac Holloway, wife Mary and children, Amos, Abel, William Asa, Isaac, Mary, Samuel, Abner and Sarah presented a certificate from Haddonfield Mo. Mtg. of Friends, N. J., dated 7 Mo. 13, 1779, to Hopewell Mo. Mtg. Frederick County, Virginia.

(Hopewell Minutes p. 199)

Crooked Run Monthly Meeting was set up in 1782 and Isaac and family doubtless were within the limits of that Monthly Meeting and became members of it at its beginning, for we find the following records of removal on the minutes of Crooked Run Mo. Mtg. Its location was on the eastern slope of the Blue Ridge Mountains a few miles south of Winchester, Va.

7 Mo. 30, 1785, Amos Holloway takes certificate to South River.

9 Mo. 5, 1788, William Holloway certificate to South River.

9 Mo. 29, 1791, Asa Holloway and Mary Holloway, Jr., take certificate to South River.

5 Mo. 9, 1793, South River Mo. Mtg. received a certificate for Isaac Holloway, Sr., and two children, Abner and Sarah, from Crooked Run.

Mary not having a certificate with her husband may have died before the family went to Bedford and Campbell Counties, Va.

The Stafford County, Virginia Court Records for 1809 have the following, viz:—"Last Will and Testament of Isaac Holloway deceased, proved by the oaths of witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded. Sara Holloway and Nathan Holloway, relict and son of said Isaac Holloway, relinquished their right to administer the said estate and the said Sara by her instrument in writing relinquished the provision made for her in the said Will.

Aaron Holloway qualified as Administrator, with the Will annexed of the said Isaac Holloway, deceased, and gave bond and security according to law.

Appraisers were appointed to allot the said Sara Holloway her dower."

Many of the Stafford County records have been destroyed and the record of the will could not be found, but it is our belief that this was Isaac (29). That he had come back to Stafford County near his son Nathan and that he had married the second time.

The descendants of Isaac Holloway and Laurinda Holloway Smith are unable to tell us of any brothers or sisters of their Grandfather Nathan Holloway. In fact some of them think he was an only child. But record of his birth which we find at Flushing so nearly corresponds with that contained in the record of Hopewell Mo. Mtg. of the birth of Isaac, son of George and Ruth, that we believe that they were one and the same person. The descendants of Isaac Holloway who settled at Flushing, and other descendants of George and Ruth, who settled in the same community have given us the information that there existed some relationship between the two families. Oliver Kinsey, Freeport, O., who is a great-grandson of Lavinia Holloway Wright, daughter of George, son of George and Ruth, writes that he has often heard his grandmother speak of an Isaac Holloway at Flushing as a relative. The information from all sources is to the effect that Nathan came of Quaker parentage and adhered to that faith until his marriage to Anna Katherine Bethel. Hopewell Mo. Mtg. records note the disownment of Nathan Holloway in 1815 for marrying in violation of the discipline.

We are unable to find the date of death of Anna Bethel Holloway, but think it to have been in the early sixties for the reason that Stafford County records show that in 1865 Nathan sold to John Taylor "200 acres, being the farm on which the said Nathan Holloway recently resided on" and we are told, went over to Fauquier County and lived with his daughter Laurinda Smith his remaining days. He died in 1872 and we are informed was buried on the farm in a private burial ground.

His children came into Friends Meeting as follows, viz:—James Holloway was received into membership by Concord Mo.

Mtg., 3, 24, 1807; Ann Holloway by Plainfield Mtg., 9, 28, 1811; Ruth Billingsley by Plainfield Mo. Mtg., 4, —, 1814, and a Daniel (who we think was another son) was received into membership by Flushing Mo. Mtg., 8, 25, 1820. Sarah Holloway, wife of Simpson Bethel, never came into the society.

On 2, 27, 1811, James Holloway and Phebe Gregg were married at a meeting held at Plainfield and we think lived in Union township about a mile and a half off the National road until about 1825 when they moved with their children to Flushing, it appearing on the Belmont records that he and Thomas Strahl exchanged lands. The brick house, which it is related he built about this time, still stands and is located about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles southeast of Flushing. James and Phebe were evidently prominent members of the society as their names frequently appear in the minutes as being "used by the meeting." More often, however, do we find the name of Phebe. It is related of her that it was difficult to quote a verse from the Bible that she could not tell from what chapter it was taken.

DESCENDANTS OF ISAAC HOLLOWAY AND ELIZABETH CALDO.

From the family record now in the hands of Ralph H. Holloway of Churdan, Iowa, we are informed that two brothers came to this country from England some time after 1751. William, one of the brothers, went to West Virginia and all record of him or his family is lost. The other brother, Isaac, moved to Washington County, Pennsylvania, and settled near Ten Mile Creek and Church. He married Elizabeth Caldo of Northampton County, Pennsylvania, in 1773. They had three children, Isaac Holloway, Jr., Moses Holloway and David Holloway. He died and was buried in Washington County, Pennsylvania, in 1808. H. H. Of Isaac's children, Isaac, Jr., married Katherine Purcell in Washington County and settled in Mercer County, Pennsylvania, living there until his death. CHAPTER XXII

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN BROWN HOLLOWAY AND EVE MARGARET PAINTER

It has been impossible to trace this family farther back than to John Brown Holloway whose children follow. Much of this information comes from his son Charles A. Holloway of Wadsworth, O. We are informed that John had one sister Peggy who married Daniel Kryder and a half brother Jacob Holloway who married Eve Margaret Painter's sister Betsy. Jacob had a large family of children as follows, Daniel, William, Samuel, Peggy, Jacob, Jr., Anna, Frank and James. All of Jacob's children, also those of John, were born in the town of Aaronburg, Center County, Pennsylvania. Of John's children three of the boys served during the Civil War, George, John and Luther. One under Grant, one under Sherman and one under Schofield. One of the children says of the father and mother, "My father was a poor man, a cooper and shoemaker by trade yet a man of wonderful intellect, a great student, with a retentive memory. He and our sainted mother left to their children that which was of far greater value than riches, a good name." It is reported that at one time John received $300 from the noted Ball estate, as one of the heirs. That he was related to George Washington five times removed and on the mother's side to John Brown of Harper's Ferry. John's mother died when he was born and he was raised by Peggy Brown, an aunt on the mother's side, who was closely related to John Brown.

CHAPTER XXIV

DESCENDANTS OF THOMAS HOLLOWAY, SR., AND CATHERINE, HIS WIFE.

Very little information regarding this family was obtained. It is suspected from the family name "Windle" occurring in both lines that they are closely related to the following, it being probable that Thomas Holloway, Sr., was the son of Joseph, who married Hannah Ball. It was suggested by the one giving the record of the family of Thomas that a search of the Ball family might result in finding more of the family history.
